The leader will point to someone in the group and say a combination of "click click bang bang". It could be short (ie. "bang") or long (ie. "click bang bang click"). Changing up the combos is helpful to keep the game interesting. The other people playing the game will need to guess who died after a series of clicking.

Also known as Click Click Bang, this game can be played at parties to annoy people who can't figure it out. The Host of the game will start "shooting" people by saying "bang! bang! bang!" or such and pointing (with your hand in the shape of a gun) randomly at people playing. People will then guess who died.
