The color is a true, or dark, black all over the horse without any areas that are brownish, reddish, or a lighter color. It should be noted that white markings (like a star, blaze, socks or stockings, etc.) DO appear on black horses, and are not considered to be the lighter colorings that would cause a black horse to be classified as some other color.

Ponies and horses are more similar than they are different. The one thing that ponies are not, that many people are mistaken about, is that they are not baby horses. Both horses and ponies are of the same species (Equus caballus) and come from the exact same family tree. However, ponies stay small their whole life, maturing more quickly than
