Like a pungent flavor permeating food, just a tiny bit of bitterness can permeate our beings, influencing our outlook, our relationships, and our spiritual vitality. Resentment and pessimism can sneak up on us, infiltrating our lives in ways we may not even recognize. Because, let's be honest: life can hurt. It can deeply disappoint us.

When Life Hurts | Today's Christian Woman

When life hurts, and I mean, really hurts, our faith in Jesus sometimes hurts too. It's hard to have faith when life hurts. Harder, I think, then when life is going our way. When we are realizing our dreams, when relationships are thriving, when finances are flowing, and the stars are aligning, having faith in God comes natural to us.

Trusting Jesus when life hurts - ChristianWeek

Sometimes life hurts and we're in anguish and misery. Sometimes the only thing that gets us through is our salvation; our relationship with Jesus. If nothing else is going right-Jesus is. Knowing that we are his protects us from getting to the point of wanting to give up.
