1. We use relative clauses to make clear which person or thing we are talking about: Marie Curie is the woman who discovered radium. This is the house which Jack built. In this kind of relative clause, we can use that instead of who or which: Marie Curie is the woman that discovered radium. This is the house that Jack built. We can leave out the pronoun if it is the object of the relative clause: This is the house that Jack built. (that is the object of built) Relative pronouns 1
